

VIRTUAL

New Year, New Rules – Changes in Workplace Laws and Regulations for 2024

WHEN

January 30, 2024
2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

WHERE

Comfort of your own desk

Join us to learn what has changed in the past year in the labor and employment sphere. This presentation will cover regulatory enforcement trends, newly enacted anti-discrimination protections, pay transparency requirements, and other updates that affect all workplaces. You can expect a discussion of relevant workplace issues, including how information technology and data policies can protect your business. You do not want to miss this session full of tips to bring your company's employment practices up to date for the new year.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Caitlin Campbell practices primarily in the areas of civil service commission work, employment-management litigation, and labor defense in the healthcare, transportation, manufacturing, and retail industries. She also advises clients in matters involving federal and state employment, municipal laws and regulations, and internal policy strategies and enforcement. She earned her Juris Doctor magna cum laude from the University of Arkansas William H. Bowen School of Law and her Master of Public Service degree from the University of Arkansas Clinton School of Public Service. She earned her Bachelor's of Arts degree summa cum laude from Lyon College. She previously served as treasurer of the Arkansas Association of Women Lawyers and is a member of the Arkansas Bar Association and the American Bar Association (Labor & Employment Law Section). Caitlin was included in the "Ones to Watch" by Best Lawyers in America for 2022 in the fields of Civil Rights Law, Immigration Law, and Labor and Employment Law – Management and Litigation – Labor and Employment. She was selected as vice-chair of the 2024 Class of the Arkansas Bar Association and Clinton School of Public Service's Public Service Academy. Active in the community, she is a member of Create Little Rock and SHARP—Young Professionals of the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra.
